A principal investigator may name a delegate to act on his/her behalf in myIRB. Once named, the delegate may enter and submit forms for the PI, including all types of application forms and the Serious and/or Unexpected Adverse Experience Form. However, the principal investigator remains responsible for the completeness and accuracy of all submitted forms. If a PI wishes to name a delegate, the IRB encourages the PI to establish documented procedures within his/her research group for reviewing and approving forms prior to their submission.

User Delegates

To select a name, start typing the name in the following format: Last, First. A list will appear to narrow your selection. Type a space after the comma and before you start typing the first name. Click Add Delegate when you have selected a user.

Section 3: Submitting a Site Application

*One Time Process. May Already be completed. HRPO will send site instructions, when applicable.

3.1: Site Applications

1. All sites need to submit an sIRB New Site application in myIRB to obtain WU sIRB approval to conduct the research at their site. This step will take place after the sIRB New Project is approved by the WU IRB.
2. Sites will also be required to sign either an addendum to an existing reliance agreement or a new reliance agreement. This process will be handled between the two IRBs and the agreements cannot be signed by site PIs.
3. Local sites should NOT attach a consent form. If a local site requires a consent form, the WU sIRB will use the approved project consent template, insert site-specific required language in to the consent, and then provide it to the local New Site. (Site-specific language is provided by the local site's IRB using the Site Registration process.)

4. Local sites do NOT need to add all research team members in myIRB. Team members are tracked at local sites only. Local processes should be followed to ensure the study team is appropriately trained and qualified. Those that need to access approved materials such as the consent form should be made delegates (See Section 2.3 Delegates to a PI).

3.2: Submitting the Site Application

1. To submit a Site Application, log in to myIRB and select Create Project then choose sIRB New Site.

The screenshot shows the myIRB interface for Washington University in St. Louis. The top navigation bar includes 'myIRB', 'Create Project', and 'Personalize'. The 'Create Project' button is circled in red. Below the navigation bar, there are three main sections: 'Local IRB Review', 'WU sIRB Review', and 'Rely on another IRB'. Under 'Local IRB Review', there are buttons for 'New Project', 'Exempt', 'Overall/Concept', and 'Non-Human Decision'. Under 'WU sIRB Review', there are buttons for 'sIRB New Project' and 'sIRB New Site', with the latter circled in red. Under 'Rely on another IRB', there is a 'Request to Rely' button. A 'Cancel' button is located at the bottom of the main content area. The footer contains copyright information and a timestamp.

2. You will be prompted to confirm your site PI name and Institution. You will be asked for the IRB ID #.
3. You will then enter the electronic form. To work through the form, start by clicking on the blue Demographics link.

3.5: Site Consent Forms

1. *As a part of the review of the overall project, the WU IRB reviews and approves a project-level template consent form that contains marked, limited sections for the inclusion of site-specific information.
2. The project-level template consent form is available in myIRB once the site starts drafting their application. It can be retrieved from myIRB and attached to any local application as required by local policy.
3. Sites do NOT need to provide a site-specific consent form to the WU IRB. The information provided in the Site Registration will be added to the project-level consent template by HRPO staff to create a site-specific consent form for your site. The PI will be notified by myIRB when the site-specific consent form is available for review and editing in the allowed sections.
4. If there are specific areas in the consent form outside of the marked, limited sections that will need to be changed for your site, make these changes to the draft consent form during your review using tracked changes in Word and it will be reviewed by the WU IRB to determine if the changes can be accepted.

3.6: Answering Questions from the WU sIRB

1. If the WU sIRB has questions about your application, you will be contacted through the myIRB system. The PI and their delegates will receive an email from myIRB@wusm.wustl.edu notifying them that there are contingencies to address.

If you are the delegate, remember to log in as the PI by using the delegate log in link in the upper right hand corner to see the questions (see Section 2.3).

2. To answer the questions, login using the link in the myIRB email. You will be taken to an area known as the Inbox. In order to see the question that needs to be addressed, click on the To Do file folder icon.

Section 8: Definitions

Reliance Agreement: A written agreement between entities participating in multi-site research. The agreement contains terms that describe what each entity is responsible for in the review, oversight, and conduct of the research including responsibilities related to local requirements, state law, and federal regulations. Previously these were referred to as IAAs or “IRB Authorization Agreements.”

Lead PI: The lead multi-site principal investigator with ultimate responsibility for the conduct and integrity of Research (generally, the initiating principal investigator or funding principal investigator, as applicable). The Lead PI will be responsible for managing the sIRB Project application in myIRB.

Site PI: An investigator(s) responsible for the conduct of the Research at his/her site. The Site PI will be responsible for managing the sIRB Site application for their site in myIRB.

Reviewing IRB: A term used in Reliance Agreements to identify the party to the agreement that acts as the sIRB in providing IRB review for all sites participating in the conduct of the same multi-site protocol.

Relying Site: A term used in Reliance Agreements to identify the party to the agreement that will rely on an IRB outside of its own entity. This is sometimes termed the Relying Institution or Relying Site or Participating Site.

sIRB Project Application: The myIRB application submitted to the WU IRB for approval of the overall project. Often known as a parent application. This application will include approval of the protocol, template consent, questionnaires, and any study wide recruitment materials.

sIRB Site Application: The myIRB application submitted to the WU IRB for approval the site to conduct the research. Often known as a child application. This application will include approval of the site specific consent form and any site specific recruitment or data collection materials.

Site Administrator: The contact person(s) or person’s at the Relying Site IRB or research office who will provide local context information by completing the Site Registration and will sign off on Relying Admin forms in myIRB on a study by study basis. This person is not typically on the study team and must be someone with the authority to agree to defer to the WU IRB on a study by study basis.

Site Registration: A form completed by the Site Administrator in myIRB that provides local context information. This is not a study specific form and only needs to be completed one time.

This form can then be updated as needed. This form must be done before any PI from the site can submit to the WU IRB.

Relying Admin Form: A form completed by the Site Administrator on a study by study basis that confirms the study team is appropriately trained and qualified, that all applicable ancillary reviews are complete and that all conflict of interest management plans have been provided. Additionally, this form confirms the Relying Site agrees to defer to the WU IRB for the particular study.
